In the afterglow of Corpus Christi last Sunday, and the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus this past Friday, and the Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary this past Saturday, let us continue during these years of the Eucharistic Revival, which is sweeping across our country, to find ways to grow in devotion and love for our Lord, present in the Holy Eucharist. Some ways to renew our love for the Blessed Sacrament is to join in the one-hour adoration before the Mass every Tuesday at 4:45pm, concluding with Benediction at 5:40pm, and followed by the celebration of the Holy Mass. Every first Thursday of the month from 4:00pm to 9:00pm come and spend some time in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Every Third Friday of the month come and join our Latino Community from 7:30pm to 8:30pm for a Eucharistic Holy Hour. There are many wonderful programs on FORMED.ORG honoring our love of the Blessed Sacrament. This week I watched: Alive: The Real Presence of Jesus and the Eucharist-Spanish with English subtitles & Faith Prevails: The Miracle of Bolsena—A dramatic presentation of a true story.
