The Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul: June 29th

On this Solemnity, Pope Francis said: “Everything passes, only God remains. Indeed, kingdoms, peoples, cultures, nations, ideologies, powers, have passed but the Church, founded on Christ, notwithstanding the many storms and our many sins, remains faithful to the deposit of faith shown in service; for the Church does not belong to popes, bishops, priests, nor the lay faithful, the Church in every moment belongs solely to Christ. Only the one who lives in Christ promotes and defends the Church by holiness of life, after the example of Peter and Paul.”
Lord thank you for calling us as you called Saint Peter and Saint Paul. Grant us the grace to serve you as these holy apostles. We offer you our service today.
