Reflect upon the Church's Prayer of Blessing of a Church taken from the present Roman Ritual. Although different that when the Church was first blessed in 1906, the present language can enrich our gratitude for what we have received.

"Blessed are you, O God, who accepted the Sacrifice of your Christ offered on the altar of the Cross for the redemption of the human race, and who with a father's love gather your people at the table of the Lord to celebrate his memorial. Therefore look, O Lord, upon this altar, which we have prepared for the celebration of your mysteries. Let it be the center of our praise and thanksgiving; let it be the altar where we offer in mystery the sacrifice of Christ; let it be the table where we break the bread of life and drink the cup of unity; let it be the table where we break the bread of life and drink the cup of unity; let it be the fountain from which flows an unending stream of salvation, so that, as we come to Christ, the living stone, we may grow in him into a holy temple; and offer on the altar of our heart the sacrifice of a life spent in holiness, pleasing and acceptable to the praise of your glory. Blessed be God for ever. Amen"

Are you new in our Assumption Community?
If you are new in our Assumption Community and would like to be a member please, call to the Parish Office 320-589-3003 or send an email at assump@info-link.net.

Liturgical Ministries
*Volunteers are needed for Special Masses in November and December. Please sign up the sheet inside the binder placed on the back of the church table.

*We are in need of Servers for the 5:30pm Saturday English Mass if your kids are available, please contact the Parish Office.

Church Monthly Cleaners
*November Church Cleaners: Pat Kieffer, Janet Sauter and Mary Anderson Stahn.
We are looking for volunteers to fill the open spots for the different months.
* Your time and talent at keeping our beautiful church tidy and clean for four hours or less a month will be greatly appreciated. The sheets for signing up are on the table behind the pews in church.
* You can call the other volunteers for your month to find a schedule that works for you. "Cleaning the Church is still Serving God"

Assumption Church and Basement
If you are planning to use the Church and or the Church Basement, please call the Parish Office before use. We have scheduled many events during the week and weekends. Thank you for your understanding!!

Parish Directory Update
Thank you for your patience as we continue working on our new parish directory. We apologize that it is taking a little longer than originally hoped, but we want to make sure it is something special for our Assumption parish family.
We are grateful to everyone who participated, submitted photos, and helped with the many details along the way. We'll continue to keep you updated as we get closer to completion and distribution. ~Patty & Jackie~
